Abu-Ghazaleh Sponsors Workshop on “Intellectual Property”

Zarqa - HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh sponsored a workshop entitled “Introduction to Intellectual Property” organized by the Arab Society for Intellectual Property. The workshop was held in cooperation between Zarqa Culture Directorate, Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property Organization and Licensing Executives Society - Arab Countries (LES-AC).

The workshop coincided with the global celebration of the Intellectual Property Day and of creation and innovation. The purpose of this workshop is to work towards a better future for the next generations, and review the latest developments in the fields of intellectual property and its protection. On behalf of His Excellency Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, Mr. Charles Shaban inaugurated the workshop activities in the presence of a number of interested in intellectual property personalities and agency including universities, government and private corporations.

Mr. Shaban said that Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property has made a great effort to be the first in the world, as it chose to be digital and work through keeping pace with development and technology, pointing out that the world is in an accelerated and continuous development and we must keep pace with this acceleration.

During the workshop, participants discussed a number of issues related to intellectual property. Mr. Khalid Al-Ananzah, Assistant Director of Patent Information Department, talked about the patent, its definition and conditions, while Mr. Tayel Al-Dabart from the National Library Department reviewed ways of protecting copyright and neighboring rights.

LES - AC holds a workshop on “Dispute Resolution in Domain Names”

Amman - Licensing Executives Society - Arab Countries (LES-AC) held a workshop entitled “Dispute Resolution in Domain Names “, in cooperation with the Arab Society for Intellectual Property and Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP).

The workshop was held in conjunction the global celebration of the Intellectual Property Day and of creation and innovation. The purpose of this workshop is to work towards a better future for the next generations, and to clarify the dispute resolution mechanism in domain names.

As a representative of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization (TAG-Org), Mr. Charles Shaban inaugurated the workshop, he said that Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property has made a great effort to be the first in the world, as it chose to be digital and work through keeping pace with development and technology, pointing out that the world is in an accelerated and continuous development and we must keep pace with this acceleration.

Shaban, the Executive Director of TAG-IP, reviewed the services provided by Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization (TAG-Org) specifically the domain names department. On her side, Ms. Lana Habash, Eversheds partner, reviewed the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP), its elements, the arbitral award mechanism, and the administrative procedures in which domain name issues go through. The participants expressed their gratitude to the Society for organizing the workshop which; as participants put it, has benefited them a lot in the fields of their work.

AGIP Opens its Second Office in Canada

OTTAWA - Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) is proud to announce the opening of its liaison office in Ottawa, the second in Canada after Montreal. The new office will bring AGIP closer to its clients in Canada seeking protection and enforcement of their intellectual property rights worldwide.

Ottawa liaison office will serve as a bridge between Canadian clients and AGIP through promoting all IP services offered by AGIP covering trademark, patent, copyright, design and domain name registrations, in addition to renewals and actions related to infringement, opposition and cancellation. Furthermore, the office will help Canadian clients to manage their IP portfolios, and will advise on the best way to manage their IP Records as well.

Commenting on this significant achievement, HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh said: “The opening of Ottawa liaison office is another indication of AGIP’s growth and expansion across the world. The opening of Ottawa office aims to accommodate rapid growth and expanding business needs, and to meet the increasing demand of AGIP’s clients in both the North and South Americas for the services that AGIP provides to clients worldwide.”

It is worth mentioning that AGIP Ottawa liaison office will complement and support our existing offices by dealing with a broad range of services offered by our mother company TAG-Org in the fields of Management and Financial Consultancy, Educational Consultancy, Economic and Strategic Studies, Professional and Technical Training, Business Advisory Services and Translation services.
