LES - AC Participates in Job Fairs at Jordanian Universities

AMMAN - The Licensing Executives Society - Arab Countries (ASIP), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Foundation (TAG Foundation), took part in the Career Days organized by the University of Jordan and World Islamic Sciences and Education University.

Through its participation, LES - AC aimed at briefing the attendees on its services and training courses that qualify graduates and job seekers, develop their capabilities and improve their chances of getting jobs that meet their skills and aspirations. The Career Days also provided the chance of direct contact between employers and job seekers that in return provided the youth with an outlook about the latest available job vacancies and trends in the market.

LES - AC's participation played a positive role in helping job seekers get the looked-for jobs.

Abu-Ghazaleh: Jordan Hosts Headquarters of the Arab Commission for Satellite Broadcasting

AMMAN - The Council of Ministers of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has endorsed the hosting of the Arab Commission for Satellite Broadcasting (ACSB) Headquarters in Amman, Jordan.

The Commission, whose Board of Trustees is chaired by HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, aims to serve joint Arab action in the fields of media and communications, consolidate the Arab media discourse to serve common Arab values, build bridges of organization and cooperation between Arab media institutions and specialized international organizations, encourage joint Arab production and publish specialized media research and studies.

It's worth mentioning that the Arab Commission for Satellite Broadcasting works under the umbrella of the Arab League as one of the Arab organizations working in the field of media and communication, presided by Mr. Mohammad Al-Adailah and its Secretary General Eng. Eyad Abu-Khorma.
